

Love💖,

I want to promise you that there will be no day of your life when you will not find me by your side. There will be no day when I will not be loving you and pampering you because you mean the world to me. You are my inspiration; you make me want to be the best for you because you are the best for me. I am so delighted and glad, and I am filled with joy to be called your bestfriend — in other words, I'm satisfied. I love you, Sai👉. I will adore every bit of you because you deserve everything
